

Come find your treasure: Paintings, sculpture, fiber art, wearable art, and collectibles from around the world!

PMA's 1st Annual Art & Artifacts Sale DECEMBER 7 AND 8, 2013

Original paintings, signed prints, memorabilia—all much loved but long since relegated to the guest room closet. Come to the Museum's 1st Art & Artifacts Sale and discover one-of-a-kind (mostly) treasures.

The Sale will include Silent Auctions on Saturday and Sunday, December 7 and 8. Bidding will close at 3:30 p.m. each day. The sale will continue through December 22, if there's anything left!

Tax-deductible donations of art and artifacts will be accepted at the Museum through Sunday, December 1. For more information or to schedule pickup of donations, please email: peninsulamuseum@gmail.com Hours are Wednesday through Sunday, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Aether Brigade!

DECEMBER 8 – JANUARY 6

The Museum will present “The Aether Brigade!”—artworks created by a regional assembly of artists—in the South Gallery during the Art & Artifacts Sale, with a performance scheduled for Sunday, December 8. Their exhibition will continue through January 26.

Who and what are they?

“The Aether Brigade!” is a transmedia, science-fiction/fantasy story about a crew of Victorian time travelers on a mission to save the world from anachronistic monsters and similar problems,” according to their website.

The exhibition will include dramatic props and costumes, handbills, posters, and other ephemera.

“Savage Garden IV” (oil on canvas)

“Savage Garden” by Kalani Engles

JANUARY 5 –MARCH 16

Kalani Engles’ new paintings, large oils on canvas, are offered to the viewer as “the essence of a wild garden unencumbered by physical context... the primordial force of plants competing for space and sunlight without regard for biological order or human design.” The reception is scheduled for Sunday, January 12, from 1 to 4 p.m.

SAVE THE DATES!

PMA’s Newsletters now cover the exhibitions and events for five galleries, art education programs (both in the Classroom and in PAI artists’ studios), and special events.

“Hermetica” by Tobias Tovera

JANUARY 5 – MARCH 16

An exhibition of new mixed-media paintings by Tobias Tovera, “Hermetica” will include a demonstration of Tovera’s experimentation with alchemical processes. The exhibition opens on January 5, with the reception scheduled for Sunday, January 12, from 1 to 4.

Tovera is searching for a “third space, a zone of possibility that exists beyond restrictive dualities... transmuted spaces, places where energy shifts, changes, or renews itself.”

Tovera states that the new series was “inspired by the primordial formations of living matter and the ways life may have begun in the genesis.” 🌐

“Pyrochlore” (Mixed media on canvas)

PAI Fall Open Studios

The Peninsula Art Institute’s 28 artists will welcome visitors to their working studios on Saturday and Sunday, December 7 and 8. “Small Works,” an exhibition of eminently collectible paintings, drawings, sculpture, photographs, prints, and fiber art by the PAI artists will be on display in the Institute Gallery from November 15 through December 29. 🌐

Homer Family, Decker Memorial Honored

The Governing Board of the Peninsula Museum of Art recently announced the naming of the Library and the West Galleries.

The library is now The Homer Family Library, and the West Galleries are the O. Paul Decker Memorial Galleries, in recognition of—and deep appreciation for—their financial support of the Museum’s growth and development of the new Burlingame site. 🌐

Peninsula Museum of Art presents
“Old Lovers”

Drawings by Eleanor Dickinson

January 5 to March 16, 2014

Opening Reception

Sunday, January 12, 1 to 4 p.m.

Eleanor Dickinson draws—incessantly. Her license plate reads “LIMNER,” which means “one who draws.” Nowhere is this talent more apparent than in her ink drawings of intimacy among the elderly.

The exhibition opens January 5 in the South Gallery, and continues through March 16. The reception is scheduled for January 12, 1 to 4 p.m.

From 101:

Exit onto Millbrae Avenue and turn left at El Camino Real.
Turn left at Trousdale (second light), and turn right into the parking lot.

From 280:

Exit onto Trousdale (from south, follow signs).
Take Trousdale all the way down, cross El Camino Real, and turn right into the parking lot.
